8. COMPETITOR AGE:

(a) Senior Men and Women: Due to International Judo Federation rules, no competitor will be admitted to enter the Senior competition under the age of fifteen years old (must be born before 01st January 1999). For competitors who have not attained their majority, the OJU member Federations should obtain, on plain paper, an authorisation to participate from the athlete's parents or legal guardians.

(b) Junior Men and Women: The age limit for Junior men and women is under 21 years, age limit is 20 years in the calendar year (born in 1993 or later) For athletes under the age of 18 years (born in 1996 or later) their parents or guardians must be informed that strangle and armlock techniques are permitted in this competition. (See attached waiver form)

(c) Cadet Men and Women: The age limit for cadet divisions is 15 years and under 18 in the calendar year (ie born between 01 January 1996 and 31 December 1998). For athletes under the age of 18 years their parents or guardians must be informed that strangle techniques are permitted in this competition. (See attached waiver form)
For Cadets competition, application of shime waza is allowed: An athlete who has lost consciousness due to shime waza will not be allowed to continue the competition.

9. SYSTEM OF COMPETITION

Further to the International Judo Federation Executive Committee decision made in March 2008, the following system of competition will be used:

An elimination system with repechage starting at the quarterfinal (last 8), i.e. for all categories the competitors will be divided into two tables by means of a draw, and an elimination system will be used to produce two finalists.

The competitors defeated in the quarterfinal will compete in two repechage contests:

- The winners of each of this two repechage contests will compete in Bronze medal contests against the loser of the semifinal contest of the respective opposite table.
- The winners (2) of those contests are placed third; The losers (2) are placed fifth
- The losers (2) of repechage contests are placed seventh.

15. INSURANCE:

Each competing team shall be responsible for its own travel insurance and for its own accident/injury and civil liability insurance for and during the Championships. The OJU declines all responsibility in these matters.

Control of gender and pregnancy is the responsibility of National Federations.

16. NATIONAL FLAG:

Each competing National Team are requested to bring along hanging national flags (minimum height 80cm, length 150cm, surface not exceed 2,16m² =1,20X1,80) and a recording of their country National anthem (short version).

In case they participate with 2 or 3 athletes in one weight division, same number of flags is also requested.

17. CITIZENSHIP VERIFICATION:

The citizenship of the competitors must be verified by persons appointed by the OJU Executive. Evidence of citizenship will be accepted by the production of a valid passport issued by the country for which the competitor wishes to compete.

Where the Championship is being held in a country for which the residents do not hold passports, a birth certificate will be acceptable proof of the competitor's citizenship of that country.

A competitor having dual or multiple citizenship evidenced by all relevant documentation must nominate the country to be represented. In the event of a change of citizenship by any competitor, there will be an automatic exclusion for a period of three years from OJU Championships. The OJU may consider a short period of two years exclusion if the relevant countries request this privilege. Any competitors in this category must present themselves personally to the Control Centre.

Competitors from New Caledonia, French Polynesia or countries with similar territorial situations must be a resident for a minimum of 2 years, supported by a passport or local I.D. card.

Each competitor will be issued with an OJU identification card which will be stamped by an appointed authority and laminated. This will become the competitor's pass for the duration of the Championships.

18. CLOTHING – White judogi:

Wearing of White judogis for the first named competitor of each contest will be compulsory for all competitors in this event. The second named competitor will wear a blue judogi.

Acceptable markings – see IJF SOR appendix 5, page 92

the IJF approved BACKPATCHES for judogi are still RECOMMENDED for competitors engaged into the Cadet or Junior categories but are MANDATORY for any competitors entering the Senior category.
